

First scene – Gave the chefs something to talk about to create background noise to the chopping in the scene.

News Reporter Scene - Good evening. This just in. We have breaking news tonight as local authorities confirm that the recent string of disappearances, now totaling twenty-six, are, in fact, connected.

What that connection is, they haven't disclosed. But sources close to the investigation describe a pattern, one that suggests coordination.

Each person vanished under similar circumstances with no evidence left behind. Just gone.

Police are asking the public to stay indoors after dark and avoid traveling alone. This is no longer random. Something, or someone, is moving with purpose.

If you notice anything unusual, report it immediately. Don't wait.
